Your Presenters:

Lynn Huffman, Certified Advanced Feng Shui Taoist Practitioner. She provides Feng Shui design consultations for home and business, helping clients create sustainable balanced, harmonious and natural environments. Her practice has been operating since 2001. Currently she is offering a variety of classes in addition to her on-site consultations.

Karen Rice King, B.A. has a double degree in Psychology and World Religion. She is a Certified Healing Arts Practitioner and Master Dowser operating a private practice since 1992 in Boulder County. Currently she is offering workshops and trainings in addition to her hands-on work. She is one of Sandra Ingerman's trained teachers of Medicine for the Earth and Shamanic Journeying.

August

When to use Feng Shui

Lynn will discuss the history of Feng Shui and how Feng Shui can help calm the stresses of the Western World. Participants will learn when Feng Shui can and should be used. All participants will be given a chart of the Bagua and will learn which rooms are associated with different life areas as it pertains to their own living environment.

History/Mechanics of Earth Acupuncture

Karen will cover some of the history of dowsing and how Earth Acupuncture has evolved to help with all issues in life. Using completed diagrams, participants will view properties where a 'safe zone' has been established. At the end of the talk, you'll go outside to see a demonstration of diagnosing negative stress lines and curing them.

September

Feng Shui Landscaping

Nature in and of itself is a powerful energy. Lynn will discuss the multitude of energies that have influence in your immediate and not so immediate environments. Learn what is missing or influencing your home and correct it with landscaping design.

Medicine for the Earth: How to Remove Environmental and Personal Toxins

As one of Sandra Ingerman's approved teachers, Karen will present the ideas presented in this body of work, where through group process transmutation occurs in order to heal individuals or change polluted water into useful water.

October

Elemental Color – Feng Shui Color Basics

Lynn will discuss colors as they relate to the Bagua. She will then discuss colors for the Master Bedroom, bathrooms, stairs, basements, kitchen and dining areas. Other rooms may be discussed, time permitting.

History of Shamanic Journeying

Karen will talk about how through the ages, indigenous people used journeying to acquire answers to questions and guidance for their lives, and how useful this tool is for life today. She will introduce participants to the idea of the Teachers and Guides from the Spirit World who are here to help us with our challenges.

November

Creating an alter and how to purchase items for it.

Learn how to create sacred space by building an alter. Lynn will be discussing the purposes for creating an alter, selecting the location for your alter and will discuss what items to use for your alter.

Use of Power Animal

Covering more of the uses of shamanic journeying. Karen will cover Power Animals and Totems – what they are and how pictures and statues can be used in the home and office to act as symbols and for ceremony and celebration.

December

Bagua adaptation and Feng Shui Decorating for the Holidays

Lynn will be discussing the bagua as it relates to the Holidays and personal cycles. She will also be discussing how to decorate for the Holidays using Feng Shui principles. Participants will also receive a Feng Shui blessing for the Holidays.

Demonstration and Use of the Pendulum

Using a pendulum to gain access to information for our lives is another form of dowsing. Karen will talk about its many uses around the world and show you how to use the pendulum yourself.
